

From: David Gressett
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/7/01 8:14pm
Subject: Microsoft

Microsoft should be left alone - a free market in software does exist.
Alternatives for Microsoft software exist for server operating systems, desktop operating systems, and application software.

The Justice Department cannot replace a free market and should not try. At best, it can only enforce the rules of commercial honesty.